

Walk-Over SHOES

A More than Stylish Shoe

Take a special look at the toe of this model. It sounds the note of Style. And yet this shoe, being made upon a full-fitting English last, has a broad shank, a low heel and a generous tread.

Very aptly has it been called a free-fitting shoe. That is to say, it is perfectly proportioned for your foot and comfort-giving, not when well-worn, but from the moment you first put it on.

It makes your foot feel and look young.

Walk-Over Shoes bear the same trade-mark the world over.

POLITICAL CHARGE THAT BERLIN IS PEOPLE LISTLESS

Little to Show That Great Upheaval Has Come as Citizens Are Too Much Interested in Food Problems.

ORDER GRADUALLY IS BEING WORKED OUT
War-Worn Nerves of Populace Too Jaded by Years of Struggle to Care Much Regarding What Occurs.

BERLIN, Nov. 21. (By the Associated Press.)—Berlin has had a week of revolution, yet the streets have the same appearance they presented during the war, with the exception of the absence of newspaper reference to events along the front. A casual visitor would not be aware that this has been the storm center of a gigantic political upheaval. The public appears anything but excited over the future progress of events. It is a jaded, war-weary populace apparently no longer capable of responding to the reflection on the German sense of patriotic duty to say that news of American food relief temporarily eclipses curiosity over the political drama. After four years of grinding war the listless attitude of the middle class in the early stages of the revolution is typical of the apathy that prevails.

Cabinet in Control.

The Ebert-Haase cabinet apparently is in undisputed control, although its organization is still somewhat chaotic. It has taken over such elements of the old, bureaucratic regime as were indispensable and placed its party men in strategic positions without, however, manifesting inclination toward party bias. The hastily created subordinate bodies and committees are gradually introducing a semblance of method into their work.

Haase Politician.

Haase is credited with being an extremely astute politician. He inherited party leadership from August Fickler, but lost command when his party split four years ago. He probably suffers abroad because of his violent utterances in the Reichstag. He should not be measured by them, but rather should be given credit for realizing his responsibility.

During the course of the week no serious friction in the cabinet's deliberations has been reported, although the left wing has not decided for or against convening of the national assembly. It desires to exploit the interim in fortifying proletarian rule. Ebert and Scheidemann, on the other hand, are content to rest their cause in the elections.

This week will bring the middle class parties into belated action. The merger of the national liberals and the progressives has virtually been effected. The appointment of Karl Kautsky and Edward Bause as under-secretaries of foreign affairs and finance, brings two of the best known theorists into the government.

Both are convinced, however, that Germany is not in fit spiritual or physical condition to warrant experiments on their pet theories.

Responsibility for the disorders in the first days of the revolution rest on the Spartacist group, in which Liebknecht and Rosa Luxemburg carry title of the influence they held at first. Socialists.

AVOID "ELU" AND PNEUMONIA BY STERILIZING NOSE

London Epidemic of 1891 Proved Oil Eucalypti (Eucalyptine Salve) Is Most Effective Preventive Known.

Get out your jar of Eucalyptine Salve or, if you have none, go to the nearest drug store at once and get a family jar of this well-known nose and throat sterilizer. Sterilize morning and night by sniffing the Eucalyptine up into the nostrils and back into the throat, whence it will spread to the larynx and trachea thus sterilizing the nose and throat.

The chief ingredient of Eucalyptine Salve is Eucalypti, the non-poisonous antiseptic, whose power to prevent influenza was first discovered in the London epidemic of 1891. In addition, Eucalyptine Salve contains just enough camphor, menthol and oil of white pine to make it soothing, healing and delightful to use.

Ask any well-informed physician and he will tell you that Eucalyptine, though originally designed by the nose and throat specialists for the mother's use with her children in colds, croup and to prevent pneumonia, is the best and most agreeable antiseptic you can use to sterilize the nose and throat of young and old alike.

Note—One application of the product referred to above sterilizes the air passages for about 12 hours against diseases contracted through the nose and throat. Any druggist can supply you for half a dollar.

Doctors and sailors are ready to suppress any plot against the government and are insistent in their demand for non-partisan policies and for convening the national assembly at which the greater German republic will receive its baptism.

CHICAGO PIANISTS POPULAR IN MEMPHIS

Chicago musical artists are being drawn to Memphis during the present week, the second one being scheduled to appear Saturday evening.

Miss Augusta Cottlow, who made such a fine impression in the Beethoven club concert Tuesday evening, is a native of the Windy City, while Madame Sturckow-Ryder, who plays Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the University Hotel, is also from the same city. She is a member of the faculty of a large music school here and is herself one of the most finished pianists in the United States.

She comes as the first of a series of concerts given under the management of Mrs. Jason Walker. Her playing is said to be an exposition of the latest style of Miss Cottlow, which naturally is awakening interest among students and teachers.

FOOD ADMINISTRATORS LEARN PEACE POLICY

What Memphians and Tennesseans are to do as their part in saving war-stricken Europe from starvation will be decided Thursday at a meeting of food and state administrators in Nashville, called by State Food Administrator H. A. Morgan.

Dr. Morgan has just returned from Washington, where a conference between Federal Food Administrator Richard D. Patterson and state food administrators took place and where plans for the administration's peace time policy were discussed.

Dr. Morgan said that the food administrators will explain this policy to county food administrators.

ENLOE AGAINST INCREASED RATE

Railroad Commissioner Says
Tennessee Roads
Successful.

BY CHAS. S. HAYDEN.
(Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21. (Spt.)—An opportunity will be given the Tennessee railroad commission and the commissions of other states in the Southern district to correct inequalities in tariffs now existing and as authorized by the federal railroad commission.

This concession was made by Secretary McAdoo following a visit by Col. E. A. Enloe, chairman of the Tennessee railroad commission, who was accompanied by Senator McKellar. Col. Enloe pointed out that the flat increase of 25 per cent in freight rates was not warranted by conditions existing in Tennessee and that this increase had merely served to intensify inequalities which had obtained under private control of the roads.

Figures were presented by Col. Enloe to show that while some of the roads in the North by reason of heavy centralization might not be carrying a fair return on the rates now in effect, the seven railroads in Tennessee would earn $40,000,000 more than their expenses this year, and he contended that the people of Tennessee should not be so taxed as to make up deficits which might exist in the operation of railroads in less favored sections.

Following the interview with Secretary McAdoo, Col. Enloe called upon Edward Chambers, assistant director, and he agreed that the principle outlined by him was correct. Mr. Chambers stated that he had already acted upon the suggestion previously made by Col. Enloe in a letter and new tariffs had been printed and sent to the

TENNESSEE LEADS IN WAR WORK FUND DRIVE

ATLANTA, Ga., Nov. 21.—Southern department subscriptions to the United war work fund totaled $9,371,028, according to reports to headquarters, which it was stated, represented practically complete returns from the campaign. It was thought, however, that straggling returns would bring the final figures to $9,800,000.

The totals by states, which show Tennessee well in the lead, follow:

Tennessee, $1,915,000;
Georgia, $1,700,000;
North Carolina, $1,561,854;
Alabama, $1,247,380;
South Carolina, $1,085,300;
Mississippi, $925,742;
Florida, $939,800.

ECONOMIST PREDICTS PRICES WILL DROP

A sharp drop in prices and wages, without a business crisis resulting, is predicted in an article, "When Prices Drop," published by the National Bank of Commerce in New York, and written by R. M. Anderson, Jr., nationally known as an economist and writer on commercial subjects. The article also discusses the necessary readjustments in American commercial policies to enable this country to play its full part in the era of reconstruction following peace.

In the foreword James S. Anderson, president of the National Bank of Commerce, in New York, calls for public planning to meet present problems of commerce.

DOUBLE LAUNCHING.

NEWPORT NEWS, Va., Nov. 21.—Another double launching of torpedo boat destroyers took place yesterday at the plant of the Newport News Shipbuilding and Drydock company, being the Daughen and Goldsborough, being put overboard. The craft are of the new type authorized during the war for the campaign against the German submarines.

TEN YOUNG MEN ARE GIVEN PRISON TERMS

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Nov. 21.—The trial jury in the case of Rowland Vittatoe, who was killed on the night of Aug. 21, near his home in Putnam county, just a fortnight ago, returned a verdict of guilty of involuntary manslaughter against ten prominent young men of that county. An indefinite sentence of from one to five years in the state penitentiary was given on each one.

Sixteen days were consumed in the trial. Six of the ten men have families and one of them, Hop McBroome, is a doctor in the Baptist church.

The defendants are Geo. Mills, Homer McBroome, Sid McBroome, Avila Platt, Charles Platt, Lum Bryant, Charles Bryant, John Bailey, Ed. Ho McBroome and Rufus Whiteaker.

On the night of Aug. 21, Rowland Vittatoe and nine other young men from Jackson, while riding horseback along the public road en route to their homes from a singing, were "rocketed" and fired upon by a number of persons who were secreted in a pasture on a hillside near the road and a pistol shot fired by some one from the hillside inflicted a mortal wound on Rowland Vittatoe which caused his death on the following morning.

TENNESSEAN KILLED BY SHELL EXPLOSION

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Nov. 21.—Capt. Joseph E. Gaffney, prominent in the Tennessee national guard, was killed on Oct. 8, during the drive between Cambria and St. Quentin, according to information reaching his family here. The officer had just emerged from a fierce battle with the Germans and was returning to regimental headquarters when struck by a shell.

He was a member of Company F, 17th Infantry, when killed. Capt. Gaffney served on the border and had been connected with the Tennessee national guard for many years.
